HOLYOKE WOMAN

SAYS HUSBAND HAS ELOPED WITH TWO WOMEN

HOLYOKE, March 20.—Mrs. Napo- leon Chenevert, who lives at 13 Dow- ells street with her daughter, alleges that her husband, who is a well known barber, eloped Tuesday with two wom- en, Mrs. Ludger Tourangeau and Miss Della Tourangeau, her niece, who lived at 41 Lyman street, Thursday. Mrs. Chenevert asked the aid of the police in locating the three missing ones.

She believes that they went to Can- ada, but has no positive knowledge of their whereabouts since last Tuesday when her husband left the city. Pre- vious to that he had abandoned her, she claims, and she had taken up her residence with her parents, whose name is Beauvais.

Mrs. Chenevert alleges that she knew that her husband had been keeping company with Miss Della Tourangeau for some time, although she did not believe that matters were serious until she was practically forced to leave him and make her home with her parents. She believes that the three left Holyoke on different trains, and that they met somewhere. She also alleges that the bank account she and her husband had together was drawn out by him and this was the first time in this city that a Holyoke man is alleged to have gone off with two ladies.

DR. BAKER

PASSES AWAY AS VICTIM OF SCIENCE

BOSTON, March 20.—Dr. George Lorimer Baker of 12 Hill street, Dor- chester, died yesterday at East Bridge- water from tuberculosis, contracted while experimenting with bacilli of the disease.

Three years ago Dr. Baker was con- ducting a research under a Boston physician for new discoveries that might lead to stopping the spread of the disease, and it was while in this work that he became infected. For two years and a half he has been seri- ously ill, part of the time at the sani- tary at East Bridgewater.

Dr. Baker was born in Boston 35 years ago and received his education in the Boston schools, graduating from the English high school. Following his elementary school education he went to Colby college, graduating there. He then took up his studies at Harvard Medical school, where he finished in 1902.

In 1904 Dr. Baker became an instruc- tor in bacteriology at the Harvard Medical school. The next year he was engaged in tuberculosis research work, when he was infected with the disease, which he has been fighting ever since.

DRIVERS PRACTICING ON ORMOND BEACH

ORMOND BEACH, March 20.—The seventh annual Florida beach auto races on the famous Ormond-Dayton sand course, which are, as usual, held March 23-25, promise to be one of the most successful meets held in years. Nearly all the famous drivers of Eu- rope and America are to take part in the big carnival. The international free for all race should prove a record breaker at one, five and ten miles, best two in three heats. The Sir Thomas Dewar $2000 trophy is to be raced for again and given outright to the win- ner. The distance is one mile, best two in three heats. The present holder of the trophy is Fred Marriott, who made the mile record in 25.15 seconds in the race for this cup. A feature of the race for the Minneapolis $2500 trophy at 100 miles is a special prize if the winner covers 100 miles within an hour, and present indications are that this will be accomplished. The two mile a minute speed crown race is also on the program. The qualification is that the winner must elicit 120 miles an hour for the two miles. There is a motor cycle Marathon race for 100 miles.

FASTED 47 DAYS

WOMAN WAS AFFLICTED WITH STOMACH TROUBLE

MERRY, N. H., March 20.—Forty- seven days without a morsel of food passing into her stomach was the won- derful experience of the last days of Miss Mary Alice Lewis, who died at her home here yesterday, aged 19 years. This record is attested by her physician, Dr. Walter B. Sanders, and her nurses who have cared for her. The once lively girl closed her short life after suffering untold agony for many weeks.

Nearly three years ago Miss Lewis underwent an operation for appendi- citis and passed through it apparently all right. One year ago last fall she had a serious stomach trouble and was operated upon by skilled surgeons, and it was found that the entire opening to the stomach had closed together. An- other operation was performed, but per- sistent fever and a red, inflamed and un- joyous expression of the face during the spring and summer.

Last fall she was visited with rheu- matoid arthritis. She was too frail for another operation, and suffered all winter.

Misery From Weak Kidneys and Rheumatism Vanishes

Cut this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheu- matism or bladder trouble or any dis- temperment of the kidneys whatever. The prescription is simple and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla, one-half ounce; Compound Sarsaparilla, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Sassa- parilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and

FOLEY IS ALIVE

Thought to Have Been Murdered

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., March 20.—A letter has just been received in Brat- tleboro from John Foley of Peoria, Ill., who was supposed to have been mur- dered in Chicago 22 years ago. It was addressed to Foley's brother, Bar- tholomew, who died eight years ago, and it asked for news of the Foley family. All the Brattleboro members of the Foley family are dead, so the letter was turned over to John Foley's sister, Mrs. C. C. Turner.

Foley was Brattleboro's star baseball player more than 25 years ago. After the Boston National league team won the championship in 1883 it played a series of exhibition games, one of which was against the Brattleboro nine, with Foley in the box. He struck out 13 of the professionals and was the fastest countryman they met on their trip.

The next year Foley joined the Quincy, Ill. club of the Western league. He never returned to this town, but he was heard from as a bad player in various cities. Bartholomew Foley received Chicago papers 25 years ago giving an account of the murder of his brother on the streets of that city. The relatives were unsuccessful in their attempts to get further infor- mation.

DR. MOORE, EX-BANKER, DIED AT LACONIA

LACONIA, N. H., March 20.—The career of a once notable figure in New Hampshire finance closed at sunset last night in the passing of Dr. Joseph Clifford Moore, who died at his cottage in Lakeport, where since his downfall from a position of power and influence he had lived the quiet life of a country physician.

In the height of his career Dr. Moore was known as the New Hampshire "Napoleon of finance," and in addition to controlling banks and other corpora- tions was a factor in politics to be reckoned with. The failure of the national bank of the Commonwealth, Derryfield savings bank and People's fire insurance company, all of Man- chester, in 1893 following the flight of Charles F. Merrill, cashier of the national bank and treasurer of the other concerns, was the Argentine Republic, where he died seven or eight years ago, ended the business life of Dr. Moore, who was president of all three.

NO SESSIONS

CONGRESS HAS ADJOURNED
UNTIL MONDAY

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Neither house of congress was in session today, both having adjourned over until Monday. In the senate on that day attention will be given to the selection of the various committees, while in the house general debate on the tariff bill will be begun. It is also probable that an agreement will be reached whereby the sessions will commence at an earlier hour and run to 6 o'clock, this arrangement to last until the bill is ready for adoption, when it is understood the usual hours will be observed.

REP. MACON

WANTS TO STOP SPECULATION IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 20.—The campaign to procure legislation against speculation in cotton, grain and other agricultural products will be carried on in the first congress with even more vigor than in the 60th congress, according to the statements of southern members.

Rep. Macon of Arkansas has reintroduced his bill to prohibit this speculation by forbidding telegraph and telephone companies from transmitting information concerning the buying, selling or dealing in these futures.

"I intend to fight for such a law as long as I am in congress," said Mr. Macon today, "provided that a law is not enacted as I hope it will be."

His bill, together with a number of others on the same subject, were considered by the committee on agriculture at the last session, but no report was made. Under the Fitzgerald amendments to the rules it is believed that the house will be called upon to vote on the proposition at the first regular session.

Rep. Garrett of Tennessee has introduced a bill to prohibit the use of the mails for dealing in these futures. Rep. Burleson of Texas intends to introduce a bill on the subject. "I do not expect to get any action on it at the special session," said Mr. Burleson, "but next winter I hope to see it become a law."

Others who are preparing for re-drafting bills to prohibit the alleged gambling are Reps. Hoffman of Alabama and Henry of Texas.

The company will close its successful and entertaining engagement with two performances today. This afternoon "The Wife" was played and tonight "The Millionaire Detective" will be the attraction.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE, MAYOR BROWN, VIGOROUSLY CALLING ATTORNEY JOHNSON TO ORDER. HON. JOHN W. McEVY SITTING AT MAYOR BROWN'S RIGHT.

GET MORE TIME

Continued

"We feel very strongly that your honor could not proceed with a judicial mind in this case. Your honor is the informant, the prosecuting officer, the judge, and may be the executioner, and we wish to go on record as protesting. In the present condition of your honor's mind you could not proceed in justice to the respondents."

"I call your honor's attention to the declarations made by you as to the police commission and what you would do and if you have thus pre-judged the case you should not sit in jurisdiction here—it would be the greatest injustice."

Mr. Bent then cited a case once tried before Chief Justice Holmes and in which he, Mr. Bent, was interested. It was a case against the Boston & Maine railroad and Chief Justice Holmes refused to sit on the case because he owned one single share of stock in the Boston & Maine railroad. "Lawyers on both sides," said Mr. Bent, "wanted him to sit but he refused. He said that though slight his interest was sufficient to disqualify him from sitting on the case."

Mr. Bent thought that the attitude of Chief Justice Holmes might be considered by the mayor in this case. "Your honor," said Mr. Bent, "has persisted in saying that the police board would be belted, and with that as a constant intention you cannot be of fair mind in this matter."

Mayor Brown said it was not only his right, but his duty to sit on the case and to hear the charges. He promised that he would be fair and impartial and he said he would give any motion to interfere with that right. He said that he would direct himself of his magistracy office and exercise the judicial mind, a person that he would be next to impossible because of the incoherence expressed attitude in the matter. Mr. Bent said he was familiar with the fact that the mayor had the right to hear the charges, but said that insisting on more rights was not always best. Mr. Bent allowed that if the mayor found that any of the charges were sustained by the facts, and so decided, that the courts would not overrule that finding. The mayor denied Mr. Bent's motion in toto but allowed that exception be saved.

Mr. Johnson did not quite agree with Mr. Bent as to the finding of the mayor. He allowed that the superior court would consider if the mayor's findings of fact ought to stand. "I want, however, to say this," said Mr. Johnson. "I see on your honor's right hand Mr. John W. McEvoy, with whom you have been in consultation before you preferred charges against the commission, and that gentleman with whom your honor will still continue to be in consultation, has been a member of the police commission, and who has himself been found guilty of duty, and who has himself upon review been found guilty, not only by the mayor, but by a judge of the superior court, has been found guilty, and—"

"Come to order," roared the mayor. "I want to be heard," said Mr. Johnson. "I move that your honor do not proceed with that partial man. You are not advising with an impartial man and you should not proceed with him in this matter, and I want my motion made a part of the records," said Mr. Johnson, with dignity, calmness and serenity. The mayor ordered the official stenographer to strike Mr. Johnson's remarks relative to Mr. McEvoy, from the records.

"I say you have no right to order these strikes from the records," said Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Burke proceeded on the question of continuance. He cited the number of charges, the length of time that

It required to prepare them and the amount of time it would require to prepare for them. He said that counsel for the respondents had been together about all of yesterday and into the night and had decided that it would be impossible to go over the records having to do with the charges in less than six or seven days.

"We do not want to come in half prepared," said Mr. Burke, "and I therefore pray that you will grant us the continuance."

"Would you be ready to go on in two weeks?" asked the mayor. "I would," said Mr. Burke.

Mr. Johnson said he had an assignment for every single day next week. "After two weeks," he said, "I will be able to go on from day to day, except in case of calls to the superior court that could not be overlooked."

Mr. Bent said that he would fully concur in what his brother had said. He said that he would like to go on after two weeks from day to day.

Mayor Brown thereupon granted the continuance. "I will now hear you on the motion for specifications," he said.

Mr. Bent allowed that the argument and reason for a continuance was sufficiently illustrative. "If your honor," he said, "can give us more specific information it would enable us to get ready with greater facility."

To strengthen the request for specifications Mr. Johnson read the words of Judge Bailey, spoken in 1897, and having to do with a case that Mr. Johnson thought was quite applicable. It was to the effect that if specifications are asked for, where acts of neglect, failure to act, neglect of duty, lack of faith, are charged the request should be complied with. Mr. Johnson concluded by saying that counsel for the respondents would be prepared at the time appointed by the mayor provided the specifications are given them in reasonable time.

Mayor Brown said he would see to it that more specific detail be supplied counsel for respondents and after a short consultation between counsel on both sides, and including City Solicitor Duncan, who is also of counsel for the mayor, his honor declared the hearing closed and postponed to Saturday morning, April 3, at 10 o'clock.

SEC. BELL

SAYS LABOR COUNCIL IS NOT

BOTHERING WITH CITY FARM

Secretary Bell of the Trade and Labor Council denies that the council is considering any stories relative to the rate of wages or other matters at the city farm. He says the council has no knowledge of the matter referred to in last night's Sun, where it is alleged an income is doing a man's work for $1 a week and board.

"I want to be heard," said Mr. Johnson.

"I move that your honor do not proceed with that partial man. You are not advising with an impartial man and you should not proceed with him in this matter, and I want my motion made a part of the records," said Mr. Johnson, with dignity, calmness and serenity. The mayor ordered the official stenographer to strike Mr. Johnson's remarks relative to Mr. McEvoy, from the records.

Mr. Burke proceeded on the question of continuance. He cited the number of charges, the length of time that

THE INSURGENTS

Beginning to Realize What Victory Cost Them

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Now that the smoke of battle has begun to disappear, the republican insurgents of the house are beginning to discern at what price they won the rules victory at the beginning of the session. They are making a careful study of the Fitzgerald amendments to the rules to ascertain just what their effect will be. The general feeling among the members is that it will be more difficult hereafter to get a bill through the house under unanimous consent. Instead of having only the speaker to satisfy all the members, more or less, must be shown the wisdom of the legislation probably unimportant to the general public but of intense interest to specific localities.

It is stated that the amendments will force votes next winter on such measures as an anti-injunction bill, a more rigid federal investigation of interstate shipments of intoxicating liquors, a prohibition measure for the district of Columbia and amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law so as to exempt labor unions from its operations.

MR. ROOSEVELT

WILL MAKE ONLY SHORT STAY IN NAPLES

NAPLES, March 20.—Casper Crowninshield, American consul here, has completed arrangements for the transfer of the baggage of the Roosevelt party on the steamer Hamburg, on which the travelers will leave New York to the steamer Admiral on which they will continue their trip to Messina.

Mr. Roosevelt's stay in Naples will be short, especially if the Hamburg is late. It may not be more than twenty-four hours.

Ambassador Crispien, who will be going down from Rome for the purpose of meeting Mr. Roosevelt, has arranged for a meeting between Mr. Roosevelt and the Duchess of Aosta, wife of King Emmanuel's oldest cousin. The meeting is desired by the duchess, who last winter made a trip through Africa, covering practically the route of the Roosevelt party with the exception, however, that the duchess started from Egypt and made her way south.

MOVING PICTURES

Will Not be Operated on Sunday

Mayor Brown has seen the light and has come to realize that the newspapers represent public sentiment. Today he gave out to the newspapers that there would be no hearing on the question of Sunday moving picture entertainments. The mayor says: "I have been over the ground carefully and have come to the conclusion that no more licenses should be granted for moving picture entertainments on Sunday."

At the regular meeting of the Highland Congregational church held last night, and the meeting was unusually well attended. It was voted unanimously to protest against the Sunday moving picture shows.

The hearing set for next Tuesday evening has been indefinitely postponed and the mayor has come to the conclusion that there will probably be no need of a hearing.

AN ANECDOTE

LINKING THE LIVES OF ANGELL, HAY AND LINCOLN

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 20.—An interesting anecdote linking the lives of President James B. Angell of the University of Michigan, the late John Hay and President Lincoln is published in the current number of the Michigan Alumnus, the organ of the University of Michigan alumni.

When Dr. Angell was editor of the Providence Journal his first glimpse of Lincoln was the occasion of the publication in Providence by Lincoln of his famous Cooper Institute speech. Up to this time, says the Alumnus, Dr. Angell confesses that he was one with the popular unfavorable impression which seems to have prevailed throughout the east on account of the awkwardness of Lincoln's personal appearance. Dr. Angell was, however, so deeply impressed with the speech he heard that he became an ardent advocate for Lincoln's election to the presidency. To bring the candidate before the public in the most favorable light and to overcome the first impression which Lincoln's appearance was so apt to make in the critical east Dr. Angell employed his young friend, John Hay, who was one of his former students and a student of law in Lincoln's office at that time, to write for the Journal a series of articles which should emphasize the sterling qualities of the man rather than his fame as a rail-splitter.

Mr. Hay, however, was so impressed with the contrast between Lincoln's mind and his western mannerisms that when he completed the series of "rail-splitter" in Lincoln and the articles were immediately blue penciled by Editor Angell.

These articles as they appeared in the Providence Journal, says the Alumnus, may be taken undoubtedly as giving John Hay's early impressions of Lincoln. The series of articles, as the article was not signed, their historic interest has never been brought out.

ALARM IS SUBSIDING

RELIEF.—Servia, March 20.—The alarm over the possibility of war with Austria-Hungary is subsiding rapidly. The Russian minister here had a long conference with Foreign Minister Mikolovich last night and another this morning. No official information has been given out, but there is reason to believe that a peaceful settlement of the Austro-Serbian controversy is now only a question of hours.

JOHN C. BURKE, Counsel for Mr. Hanson.

The commissioning chamber at city hall was the scene this forenoon of a few lively bills that had to do with the hearing of the charges made by Mayor Brown against Police Commissioners Stearns, Hanson and Boulger with a view to removing them from office.

The principal question today was one of continuance. The mayor set this day for the commencement of a hearing on the charges which he had made against the police commissioners and before the hearing opened this forenoon a "red-hot" friend of the mayor said that the mayor would grant the commissioners a continuance of two or three days only.

The fact remains, however, that the mayor granted a two weeks' continuance and the hearing will begin on April 6, at 10 o'clock. The mayor granted to Mayor Brown a continuance of two weeks for the hearing of the charges made by the mayor against the police commissioners.

The mayor's charges against the police commissioners were made in a letter to the mayor on March 10, and the mayor had not yet received the charges. The mayor's charges were made in a letter to the mayor on March 10, and the mayor had not yet received the charges.

Col. Cooper and His Son Convicted of Murder

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 20.—"Your honor, we move the case be declared a mistrial because of the verdict yesterday. We contend that yesterday's verdict was the only one and that it acquitted John Sharp, but declared a disagreement on the other defendants. We also ask that the defendants be admitted to bond at once."

"The verdict of the jury makes it a hushable case," was the court's retort. "I will fix the bond of each defendant at $25,000 unless there be some objection. In that event I will hear arguments."

Both sides said the arrangement was satisfactory.

Judge Anderson said: "We move that judgment be suspended and that we be given a new trial. We will be prepared to argue the motion later—probably next week."

The defendants then signed the bond and returned with the relatives and friends to the room they have occupied in the jail building.

The jurors were not inclined to talk, but one of them said:

THROWN FROM TRAIN

Young Man is in a Critical Condition

PITTSBURG, March 20.—The young man who last evening was beaten, robbed and thrown from an east-bound Pennsylvania railroad train at Wilkesburg, a suburb of this city, recovered partial consciousness at the Columbia hospital today and said he was J. D. Ryan, 25 years of age, a graduate of Yale and resided on Lakeview avenue, Chicago.

The young man's condition is critical, and according to physicians he may be paralyzed for life. His spine is injured and limbs are paralyzed. An operation was performed early today and Ryan revived sufficiently to make a statement. After giving his name and address Ryan said:

"During Friday I was on Fifth avenue several times and noticed that I was followed by a young man. I went to a show at the Grand Opera House. He followed me there. I was getting anxious and recollecting that I had a Pennsylvania railroad mileage book I went to the depot and entered a train. As I did so I noticed that I was still being trailed and that there were now two young men instead of one."

"In passing from one car to another I met the men on the platform. They grabbed me by the throat, took my jewelry and money and threw me from the train."

Shortly after he had made this statement a second operation was performed and a portion of his spine was removed. After the operation he again lapsed into unconsciousness.

Will Be Disposed of Without Trial

Constable McCauvran is Found Not Guilty of Technical Charge of Larceny — Liquor Dealer Charged With Selling After Hours

The Law and Order league case against John H. Douglas, a liquor dealer charged with illegal keeping, was up in police court today. Lawyer Ham appeared for the prosecution and lawyer Hogan for the defendant. Levi H. Buzzell, an agent of the Law and Order league testified that on Saturday night October 24 he visited the saloon of the defendant at 16-55 and remained there until 12:55 a. m. At 11 o'clock he saw five men come out of the back door. He saw Mr. Neville, an employee of the place, standing outside the saloon. At 12:50 two men came out and were driven away in a carriage and then six men came out and after talking a few minutes, went away. Witness could not say what happened inside, but he saw some men go in and some come out.

Cross examined, witness said he was in town that night doing some business for the Law and Order League. He could not remember where he had been during the day, or what he drank or what he did on that day previous to the time that he went to Douglas's store. He was sure he was sober that night. He might have drunk three glasses of ale that night, but couldn't say whether he had drunk any whiskey or not. A few minutes later the witness couldn't remember having said that he might have had three ales.

Mr. Hogan took the notes from which the witness testified and the latter testified to the best of his recollection he wrote the notes on the South common the next day. He admitted that he saw no one drinking or that he couldn't tell whether the room inside was cleaning up or not. At 12:50 the whole place was shut down. Witness recalled the fact that he saw an officer on South street that night, but said nothing to him. He saw the same officer several times while he was watching the place. He could not identify the officer.

The cross-examination was long-drawn out owing to the peculiar manner in which the witness made answers to the different questions. At 1 o'clock the case was continued until Monday.

Miss Cynthia Moore, industrial secretary of the Young Women's Christian association of Bridgeport, Conn., is spending a day or two at the Lowell association to speak on the industrial work before the students who are in training.

According to the testimony brought out during the case, one Daniel Cronin purchased a Singer sewing machine from William M. Waterman, local agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company. Later the machine, in some mysterious manner, disappeared from Cronin's possession and was placed in a house in Adams street. Lawyer Joseph P. Loughran, representing Cronin, gave Constable McCauvran a demand for the machine, and the latter seized the machine and placed it in William Riggs' place of business in Prescott street for safe keeping. Subsequent to the storing of the machine in Prescott street Lorenzo A. Ayer and his wife called at the store and purchased the machine from Cronin for which they paid $2 to Cronin. One of the witnesses for the complainant testified that after Cronin received the money he turned some of it over to McGauvran, and said: "That will make us square."

McGauvran, in his own behalf, testified that his connection with the case was simply in his official capacity as constable and he had no knowledge of any previous irregularities as to its rightful ownership. The case was submitted without argument and the defendant found not guilty.

MRS. WM. H. TAFT

Looking for a Summer Home Near Boston

BOSTON, March 20.—The trip of Mrs. W. H. Taft, Miss Mabel Boardman and Assistant Secretary to the President Mischler, to the vicinity of Boston to search for a suitable summer home for the presidential household, recalls the fact that countless places in New England have been mentioned as "summer capital" possibilities. Three ocean shore resorts, however, have been mentioned more prominently than others, namely, Cohasset, on the shore of Massachusetts bay; Gloucester, on the north shore, and Portsmouth, N. H.

Reports emanating from the three places mentioned have declared that President Taft had rented a summer home at Cohasset, about 20 miles from Boston, contains many beautiful summer estates, principally of wealthy Bostonians. At Gloucester and in the immediate vicinity of that famous fishing port there are hundreds of magnificent summer estates occupied by wealthy and prominent persons from all sections of the country. Many of the embassies and legations are removed to the Massachusetts north shore during the summer months. John Hays Hammond, a close friend of Pres. Taft, is a resident of Gloucester and has a magnificent home there.

At near Portsmouth are the summer homes of many persons prominent in the middle west, among them former Gov. Francis of Missouri, who has a summer estate at Rye, five miles from Portsmouth.

Cohasset's chief claim to the summer capital rests in its naturally beautiful location.

At Gloucester, President Taft would be near the homes of Secretary of the Navy Wm. L. Meyer at Hamilton, Senator Lodge at Nahant and the summer embassies and legations at various points along the north shore.

The manoeuvres of the warships might easily be witnessed by the president from this locality.

WOMAN DESPONDENT AT HAVING TO LEAVE WORCESTER

WORCESTER, March 20.—Despondent because of poor health and grieved because she was to leave her Worcester relatives and friends, to make her home in Belknap Falls, Vt., Mrs. Thelma B. Belknap, 107 Endicott street, aged 47, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid.

Mrs. Belknap had been a sufferer from tuberculosis and it is believed that the strain of packing her household furniture, preparatory to moving to a new home, was too much for her. Mr. Belknap is a miller and, owing to the business depression in Worcester, he had to go elsewhere for work and he got a job in Belknap Falls, where he had also secured a tenement, and the furniture was all packed and ready to be shipped today.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Belknap sent her 24-year-old son by a former husband, Alvin S. George, to do an errand up town. She then locked the door and wrote a note which she pinned to the wall.

"God forgive me for this. I am so sorry for my husband. Tell him and my son to pray for me. I am tired of suffering. Forgive me. I cannot live. Get my sister Minnie to help you. Goodbye to all. Bury me any place you like."

She then lay down on her bed and drank the carbolic acid, some of which she spilled over her face, burning the skin. Her body was discovered by her son.

THE PARK HOTEL

Board Decides to Continue Meeting

The hearing of charges against the Park hotel before the board of police, which was scheduled to take place at 10 o'clock this morning, was not held, owing to the fact that the members of the board were present at the hearing at city hall.

Shortly before noon the board arrived at its office and took up the matter of the Park hotel. Chairman Stearns stated that he had had conversation with Lawyer Bent, who is counsel for the owners of the Park hotel, and the latter had stated that he would not be prepared to represent Mr. King of the Park hotel, inasmuch as he is busy engaged on the hearing of the charges against the Park hotel.

The board voted to continue the hearing of the charges against the Park hotel until 10 o'clock on the morning of Wednesday, March 31.

LIQUOR LICENSES

The Time for Filing Applications Expired at Noon

The time for filing applications for liquor licenses at the office of the board of police expired at noon today and after Clerk John J. Phiberty, Jr., had a chance to get a refreshing sleep after the rush of business, it was found that 118 applications had been filed. Of that number there were 53 applications for first and fourth class, common victualer and retail dealers; three first and fourth class common victualers and wholesale dealers; three wholesale dealers; one brewery; 12 innholders, and six social club licenses.

The only changes in the license fees this year is that the price for hotels has been reduced from $250 last year to $150 this year and the increase from $50 last year to $200 this year for special club licenses.

The fee for a first and fourth class common victualer and retail dealer is $1800; first and fourth class common victualer and wholesale dealer, $2800; wholesale dealer, $1500 and brewers' license, $1500.

The eleven hawkers who have applied. One of the interesting features of the hotel applications is that there are two applications for licenses at the Park Hotel. John C. King, the present licensee, filed an application for an innholder's license at the Park.

NO SESSIONS

CONGRESS HAS ADJOURNED
UNTIL MONDAY

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Neither house of congress was in session today, both having adjourned until Monday. In the senate on that day attention will be given to the selection of the various committees while in the house general debate on the tariff bill will be begun. It is also probable that an agreement will be reached whereby the sessions will commence at an earlier hour and run to 6 o'clock, this arrangement to last until the bill is ready for adoption, when it is understood the usual hours will be observed.

REP. MACON

CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 20.—The campaign to procure legislation against speculation in cotton, grain and other agricultural products will be kept vigorous in the 60th congress, according to the statements of southern members.

Rep. Macon of Arkansas has introduced his bill to prohibit this speculation by forbidding telegraph and telephone companies from transmitting information concerning the buying, selling or dealing in these futures.

"I intend to fight for such a law as long as I am in congress," said Mr. Macon today, "provided that a law is enacted as I hope it will be."

He is together with a number of others on the same subject were considered by the committee on agriculture at the last session, but no report was made. Under the Fitzgerald amendments to the rules it is believed that the house will be called upon to vote on the proposition at the first recess session.

Rep. Garrett of Tennessee has introduced a bill to prohibit the use of the mails for dealing in these futures.

Rep. Burleson of Texas intends to introduce a bill on the subject. "I do not expect to get any action on it at the special session," said Mr. Burleson, "but next winter I hope to see it become a law."

Others who are preparing for re-drafting bills to prohibit the alleged gambling are Reps. Hoffman of Alabama and Henry of Texas.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE, MAYOR BROWN, VIGOROUSLY CALLING ATTORNEY JOHNSON TO ORDER. JOHN W. McEVY SITTING AT MAYOR BROWN'S RIGHT.

GET MORE TIME

"We feel very strongly that your honor could not proceed with a judicial mind in this case. Your honor is the informant, the prosecuting officer, the judge, and may be the executioner, and we wish to go on record as protesting. In the present condition of your honor's mind you could not proceed in justice to the respondents."

"I call your honor's attention to the declarations made by you as to the police commission and what you would do and if you have thus prejudged the case you should not sit in jurisdiction here—it would be the grossest injustice."

Mr. Bent then cited a case once tried before Chief Justice Holmes and in which Mr. Bent was interested. It was a case against the Boston & Maine railroad and Chief Justice Holmes refused to sit on the case because he owned one single share of stock in the Boston & Maine railroad. "Lawyers on both sides," said Mr. Bent, "wanted him to sit but he refused. He said that though slight his interest was sufficient to disqualify him from sitting on the case."

Mr. Bent thought that the attitude of Chief Justice Holmes might be considered by the mayor in this case. "Your honor," said Mr. Bent, "has persisted in saying that the police board would be belted, and with that as a constant intention you cannot be of fair mind in this matter."

Mayor Brown said it was not only his right, but his duty to sit on the case and to hear the charges. He promised that he would be fair and impartial and he said he would deny any motion to interfere with that right. He said that he would direct himself of his magisterial office and exercise the judicial mind, a performance Mr. Bent seemed to think would be next to impossible because of the mayor's expressed attitude in the matter. Mr. Bent said he was familiar with the fact that the mayor had the right to hear the charges, but said that insisting on more rights was not always best. He said that if the mayor found by facts and so decided that the courts would not overrule the findings. The mayor denied Mr. Bent's motion in toto but allowed that exception be saved.

Mr. Johnson did not quite agree with Mr. Bent as to the finding of the mayor. He allowed that the superior court would consider if the mayor's findings of fact ought to stand. "I want, however," to say this," said Mr. Johnson, "I see on your honor's right hand Mr. John W. McEvoy, with whom your honor has been in consultation before you preferred charges against the commission, and that gentleman with whom your honor will still continue to be in consultation, has been a member of the police commission, and who has himself been found guilty of malfeasance in incapacity and neglect of duty, and who has himself upon review been found guilty, not only by the mayor, but by a judge of the superior court, has been found guilty, and—"

"I want to be heard," said Mr. Johnson.

"Come to order—you cannot indulge in personal remarks here," said the mayor.

"I have that your honor do not consult with that partial man. You are not advising with an impartial man and you should not proceed with him in this matter, and I want my motion made a part of the records," said Mr. Johnson, with dignity, calmness and severity.

The mayor ordered the official stenographer to strike Mr. Johnson's remarks relative to Mr. McEvoy from the records.

"I say you have no right to order these strikes from the records," said Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Burke proceeded on the question of continuance. He cited the number of charges, the length of time that it required to prepare them and the amount of time it would require to prepare for them. He said that counsel for the respondents had been together about all of yesterday and into the night and had decided that it would be impossible to go over the records having to do with the charges in less than six or seven days.

"We do not want to come in half prepared," said Mr. Burke, "and I therefore pray that you will grant us the continuance."

"Would you be ready to go on in two weeks?" asked the mayor.

"I would," said Mr. Burke.

Mr. Johnson said he had an assignment for every single day next week. "After two weeks," he said, "I will be able to go on from day to day, except in case of calls to the superior court that could not be overlooked."

Mr. Bent said that he would fully concur in what his brother had said. He said that he would like to go on after two weeks from day to day.

Mayor Brown thereupon granted the continuance. "I will now hear you on the motion for specifications," he said.

Mr. Bent allowed that the argument and reason for a continuance was sufficiently illustrative. "If your honor," he said, "can give us more specific information it would enable us to get ready with greater facility."

To strengthen the request for specifications Mr. Johnson read the words of Judge Bailey, spoken in 1897, and having to do with a case that Mr. Johnson thought was quite applicable. It was to the effect that if specifications are asked for where acts of neglect, failure to act, neglect of duty, lack of faith, are charged the request should be complied with. Mr. Johnson concluded by saying that counsel for the respondents would be prepared at the time appointed by the mayor providing the specifications are given them in reasonable time.

Mayor Brown said he would see to it that more specific details be supplied counsel for specifications and after a short consultation between counsel on both sides, and including City Solicitor Duran, who is also of counsel for the mayor, his honor declared the hearing closed and postponed to Saturday morning, April 3, at 10 o'clock.

SEC. BELL

SAYS LABOR COUNCIL IS NOT
BOTHERING WITH CITY FARM

Secretary Bell of the Trades and Labor council denies that the council is considering any strikes relative to the rate of wages or other matters at the city farm. He says the council has no knowledge of the matter referred to in the Boston Sun where it is alleged an inmate is doing a man's work for $1 a week and board.

"I say you have no right to order these strikes from the records," said Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Burke proceeded on the question of continuance. He cited the number of charges, the length of time that it required to prepare them and the amount of time it would require to prepare for them. He said that counsel for the respondents had been together about all of yesterday and into the night and had decided that it would be impossible to go over the records having to do with the charges in less than six or seven days.

"We do not want to come in half prepared," said Mr. Burke, "and I therefore pray that you will grant us the continuance."

"Would you be ready to go on in two weeks?" asked the mayor.

"I would," said Mr. Burke.

Mr. Johnson said he had an assignment for every single day next week. "After two weeks," he said, "I will be able to go on from day to day, except in case of calls to the superior court that could not be overlooked."

BOARD OF HEALTH

Voted to Close Big Tenement Block

The board of health at its regular meeting held yesterday afternoon resumed its consideration of the infected meat problem. Other matters considered included a recommendation that a block in Coolidge street be immediately vacated in the interests of the public. The board voted to adopt this recommendation. It was Agent Bates who recommended that the block numbered 22-24-26-28 Coolidge street be vacated. The property is owned by George Hunsin. Inspector William H. Connors said that conditions were deplorable and in the interests of public health the building should be vacated.

On motion of Dr. Martin, Agent Bates was instructed to notify the tenants to vacate within six days. The inspector said that several notices had been given to the owner but that no notice had been taken of them. It was voted that the following notice be posted on the house:

"This house as a dwelling place is condemned and closed. It is to be again occupied without the permission of the board of health."

The following letter was acknowledged from Austin Peters, chief of the cattle bureau:

Boston, March 15, 1909.

To the Chairman of the Board of Health:

Sir: I desire to call your attention to the following provisions of the law relative to licensing slaughterhouses and renderers and the inspection of meat:

Section 106 of chapter 75 of the revised laws as amended by chapter 213 of the acts of 1907, provides that the mayor and aldermen, selectmen, or such other officers as they shall designate, or in a town having a population of more than 5000, the board of health, if any, may annually issue licenses to any person engaged in the business of slaughtering meat, cattle, sheep and swine to applicants therefor.

The license shall continue in force until the first day of May of the year next ensuing, unless sooner forfeited or rendered void. Such board or officers shall annually, on or before the first day of June, send to the chief of the cattle bureau a copy of the application made to them under the provisions of the preceding section and their action thereon.

Section 111 of chapter 75 of the revised laws, as amended by chapter 213 of the acts of 1907, provides for licensing rendering establishments where the business of killing and rendering horses is carried on and rendering other meats to the chief of the cattle bureau.

Chapter 213 of the acts of 1907, as amended by section 6 of chapter 323 of the acts of 1905, is an act relative to the marking of certain carcasses and the inspection of certain domestic animals that the boards of health desiring stamps for marking animals that are slaughtered for food after they have passed inspection, can obtain stamps through this office, and they will be furnished at cost.

Chapter 213 of the acts of 1907 is an act relative to the slaughter of animals and the inspection and sale thereof. You will see in this act that the law provides that where a calf is killed for food and the dressed carcass weighs less than 10 pounds it shall be considered unfit for food.

Section 70 of chapter 56 of the revised laws, as amended by chapter 213 of the acts of 1907, provides that if a board of health select or condemn any carcass or meat for the reason that it is infected with a contagious disease, it shall immediately give notice to this office, giving the name of the owner or person in whose possession it was found, the nature of the disease and the disposition made of said meat or carcass.

I have enclosed printed rules and regulations for the inspection of meat as provided in section 7 of chapter 90 of the revised laws. Many of these provisions of the law have not been lived up to by boards of health as they should have been, and they must be more strictly complied with in the future.

Yours respectfully,

Austin Peters,

Chief of the Cattle Bureau.

After the reading of the above communication the board entered upon a discussion as to what should be done. The opinion was that the inspection of meat has not been carried on with the thoroughness demanded by existing conditions.

The question of Inspector Farrell's resignation was considered. The inspector is forced out by the operation of civil service rules. It was suggested that requisition be made on the civil service commission for names from which to choose a successor to Inspector Farrell.

It was voted to have Inspector Farrell before the board at the next meeting, that his attitude on the question of remaining in office or resigning may be learned.

AN EXPEDITION

TO GO TO RELIEF OF DOCTOR COOK

NEW YORK, March 20.—Plans for a rescue expedition to go to the relief of Dr. F. A. Cook, the Polar explorer, who is believed to be still alive in the Arctic regions, were outlined yesterday by Captain Osborn of the Arctic club. Contributions for this purpose were asked for some time ago and have been coming in since that time in encouraging number, he said.

The committee has in contemplation the purchase of a small schooner, rigged vessel to carry a rescue party of four or five persons, who will sail during the early summer under the American flag. The vessel which the members have in mind is a sister ship to the whaling schooner Gifford, now at winter quarters in Hudson bay.

LOWELL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

The Lowell Commercial college reports that in spite of the recent hard times, the winter term has been the most successful in its history. New students are enrolling every week in both the day and the evening sessions for the spring courses in bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting. Students can begin any day or evening and both sessions continue until July. A good many take advantage of this fact and begin their courses now, thus gaining several months' time over those who do not enter until next September. The evening sessions are particularly beneficial to students who are attending the evening high school, since, when it closes, they can go right on with their studies at the commercial college and finish out the season without a break in their progress. The college is pushing its requirements to a higher standard every year, and the strong work in its model office is attracting the attention of some of the best known schools in New England.

HOLYOKE WOMAN

SAYS HUSBAND HAS ELOPED WITH TWO WOMEN

HOLYOKE, March 20.—Mrs. Napoleon Cheney, who lives at 19 Dowers street with her daughter, alleges that her husband, who is a well known barber, eloped Tuesday with two women.

Mrs. Ludger Tourangeau and Miss Della Tourangeau, her niece, who lived at 31 Lyman street, Thursday, Mrs. Cheney alleged the aid of the police in locating the three missing ones.

She believes that they went to Canada, but has no positive knowledge of their whereabouts since last Tuesday, when her husband left the city. Previous to that he had abandoned her claims, and she had taken up her residence with her parents, whose name is Beaudin.

Mrs. Cheney alleges that she knew that her husband had been keeping company with Miss Della Tourangeau for some time, although she did not believe that matters were serious until she was practically forced to leave him and make her home with her parents.

She believes that the three left Holyoke on different trains under a pre-arranged scheme and that they were to meet somewhere. She also alleges that the bank account she and her husband had together was drawn out by him and she was left penniless.

This is the first time in this city that a Holyoke man alleged to have gone off with two affiliates.

DR. BAKER

PASSES AWAY AS VICTIM OF SCIENCE

BOSTON, March 20.—Dr. George Lorimer Baker of 12 Hill street, Dorchester, died yesterday at East Bridge-water from tuberculosis, contracted while experimenting with bacilli of the disease.

Three years ago Dr. Baker was conducting a research under a Boston physician for new discoveries that might lead to stopping the spread of the disease, and it was while in this work that he became infected. For two years and a half he has been seriously ill, part of the time at the sanitarium at East Bridgewater.

Dr. Baker was born in Boston 35 years ago and received his education in the Boston schools, graduating from the English high school. Following his elementary school education he went to Colby college, graduating there. He then took up his studies at Harvard Medical school, where he finished in 1902.

In 1904 Dr. Baker became an instructor in bacteriology at the Harvard Medical school. The next year he was engaged in tuberculosis research work, which he was infected with the disease, which he has been fighting ever since.

CAPTAIN CONNELL
The Star of the Lowell Team.

25-1-8 points. Lawrence was second with 32 1-4, while Haverhill also ran with 4 1-4. But for the fact that Woodies was disqualified in the 50 yard run there would have been nothing to the meet but Lowell.

The Lowell aggregation was handicapped because of the fact that the track was in poor condition, there was no relay race and of Woodies' disqualification.

The Lowell runners had much trouble with the banks, which they often were sloped to a greater extent than they were accustomed to, but on the whole, they are just about equal to the showing made by them.

Lowell also took the 100 yard relay race, which did not count for anything in the meet.

Connell, as usual, was the great favorite. In all he carried nine points for the high school, taking first in the 50 yard dash, second in the 25 yard hurdles, and third in the 50 yard run.

Haverhill showed up very poorly, taking one point in the high school, a quarter of a point in the 50 yard dash, and three points in the 100 yard run.

One surprising thing about the meet was that Brown of this city took the 100 yard dash, a distance of 37 feet and 10 inches, Spaulding of this city took the 100 yard run, a distance of 37 feet and 10 inches, and the 50 yard dash was won by Connell.

DRIVERS PRACTICING ON ORMOND BEACH

ORMWOOD BEACH, March 20.—The seventh annual Florida coach auto races on the famous Ormond-Daytona sand course, which are, as usual, held March 23-25, promise to be one of the most successful meets held in years.

Nearly all the famous drivers of Europe and America are to take part in the big carnival. The international tree for all race should prove a record breaker at one five and ten miles, best two in three heats. The Six Thousand Dewar 2500 trophy is to be raced for again and given outright to the winner. The distance is one mile, best two in three heats. The present holder of the trophy is Fred Marlett, who made the mile record in 28 1-2 seconds in the race for this cup. A feature of the race for the Minneapolis 2500 trophy at 100 miles is a special prize if the winner covers 100 miles within an hour, and present indications are that this will be accomplished. The two mile minute speed crown race is also on the program. The qualification is that the winner must equal 120 miles an hour for the two miles. There is a minor cycle Marathon race for 100 miles.

This event, it was some disappointing to the spectators, was to see Hannan, in third, led by O'Brien and Collins.

The disqualifying of Woodies in the 500 yard run was disappointing, but no one has a word to say against the officials in this case. Their action was justified and proper. If it had not been for this, the event would have easily come to the Lowell team.

Following is the summary of the events:

High jump—Won by Hannan, Lawrence; second, Bartlett, Lowell; third, Sullivan, Haverhill.

50 yard dash—Won by Connell; second, Dow; third, Connell, all of Lowell.

1000 yards run—Won by O'Brien, Lowell; second, Collins, Lowell; third, Hannan, Lawrence.

50 yard hurdles—Won by Riley, Lawrence; second, Connell, Lowell; third, Dow, Lowell.

Pole vault—Won by Lawrence, in between Riley and Taylor; third, in between Kline, Lawrence; O'Brien and Farrell, Lowell, and Brickett, Haverhill.

500 yard run—Won by Connell, Lowell; second, Ayer, Lawrence; third, Curran, Haverhill; third, Spaulding, Lowell.

600 yard run—Won by Riley, Lawrence; second, Hutton, Lawrence; third, Dushane, Lawrence.

Freeman relay—Won by Lowell.

FASTED 47 DAYS

WOMAN WAS AFFLICTED WITH STOMACH TROUBLE

PERRY, N. H., March 20.—Forty-seven days without a morsel of food passing into her stomach was the wonderful experience of the last days of Miss Mary Alice Lewis, who died at her home here yesterday, aged 12 years. This record is attested by her physician, Dr. Walter R. Sanders, and her mother, who have cared for her.

The once lovely girl showed her last illness after suffering untold agony for many weeks.

Only three years ago Miss Lewis underwent an operation for appendicitis and passed through it apparently all right. One year ago last fall she had a serious stomach trouble and was treated by a skilled surgeon, and it was found that the outer opening to the stomach had grown together. An operation to relieve the condition was performed and she recovered fully and enjoyed excellent health during the spring and summer.

Last fall she was seized with the old trouble again. She was treated by medical attention and suffered all month without food.

FOLEY IS ALIVE

Thought to Have Been Murdered

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., March 20.—A letter has just been received in Brattleboro from John Foley of Peoria, Ill., who was supposed to have been murdered in Chicago 22 years ago.

It was addressed to Foley's brother, Bartholomew, who died eight years ago, and it asked for news of the Foley family. All the Brattleboro members of the Foley family are dead, so the letter was turned over to John Foley's aunt, Mrs. C. C. Turner.

Foley was Brattleboro's star baseball player more than 25 years ago. After the Boston National League team won the championship in 1883 it played a series of exhibition games, one of which was against the Brattleboro nine, with Foley in the box. He struck out 13 of the professionals and was the fastest countryman they met on their trip.

The next year Foley joined the Quincy, Ill., club of the Western League. He never returned to this town, but he was heard from as a bad player in various cities. Bartholomew Foley received Chicago papers 22 years ago giving an account of the murder of his brother on the streets of that city. The relatives were unsuccessful in their attempts to get further information.

CAREER ENDED
DR. MOORE, EX-BANKER, DIED AT LACONIA

LACONIA, N. H., March 20.—The career of a once notable figure in New Hampshire finance closed at sunset last night in the passing of Dr. Joseph Clifford Moore, who died at his cottage in Laceyville, where since his downfall from a position of power and influence he had lived the quiet life of a country physician.

In the height of his career Dr. Moore was known as the New Hampshire "Napoleon of finance," and in addition to controlling banks and other corporations was a factor in politics to be reckoned with. The failure of the national bank of the Commonwealth, Derryfield savings bank and People's Trust Insurance company, all of Manchester, in 1890 following the flight of Charles P. Merrill, cashier of the national bank and treasurer of the other concerns to Argentine Republic, where he died seven or eight years ago, ended the business life of Dr. Moore, who was president of all three.

LATEST LAKEVIEW INN CASE Will Be Disposed of Without Trial

Constable McGauvran is Found Not Guilty of Technical Charge of Larceny — Liquor Dealer Charged With Selling After Hours

The Law and Order league case against John H. Douglas, a liquor dealer charged with illegal keeping, was up in police court today. Lawyer Ham appeared for the prosecution and Lawyer Hagan for the defendant. Constable McGauvran, an agent of the Law and Order league testified that on Saturday night October 24 he visited the saloon of the defendant at 1055 and remained there until 12:55 a. m. At 11 o'clock he saw five men come out of the back door. He saw Mr. Neville, an employ of the place, standing outside the saloon. At 12:50 two men came out and were driven away in a carriage and then six men came out and after talking a few minutes, went away. Witness could not say what happened inside, but he saw some men go in and some come out.

Cross examined, witness said he was in town that night doing some business for the Law and Order League. He could not remember where he had been during the day, or what he drank or what he did on that day previous to the time that he went to Douglas's store. He was sure he was sober that night. He might have drunk three or four glasses of ale that night, but couldn't say whether he had drunk any whiskey or not. A few minutes later the witness couldn't remember having said that he might have had three ales.

Mr. Hagan took the notes from which the witness testified and the latter testified that to the best of his recollection he wrote the notes on the South common the next day. He admitted that he saw no one drinking or that he didn't tell whether the men inside were cleaning up or not. At 12:50 the witness was shut down. Witness recalled the fact that he saw an officer on South street that night, but said nothing to him. He saw the same officer several times while he was watching the place. He could not identify the officer.

The cross-examination was long-drawn out owing to the peculiar manner in which the witness made answers to the different questions. At 1 o'clock the case was continued until Monday.

McGauvran Not Guilty

Edward K. McGauvran was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint, charging him with the larceny of $9 in money, the property of Lorenzo A. Ayer, and through his counsel, Daniel J. Donahue, entered a plea of not guilty. Harold A. Varnum appeared for the complainant.

BOSTON ROVERS

AWARDED CUP IN THE SOCCER LEAGUE

BOSTON, March 20.—It was a gala night at the rooms of the Boston Rovers, corner of Williams and Washington streets, Jamaica Plain, last evening, when the formal exercises attending the presentation of the John C. McGee cup, the championship trophy of the Boston association football league, took place in the presence of a large gathering of league players and their friends.

The Rovers' team, that went through the season undefeated champions of the league, were each presented with a handsome gold medal. The team included J. Fairweather, capt., Ben Lynch, H. C. Lewis, H. Gray, A. Houston, G. Guthrie, R. Moley, D. Maitland, J. Cantelino, G. Collins, W. Collins, J. McCleary, W. D. Murchie, James Smith, D. Stewart.

Pres. Barker of the league presented the cup, donated by the late John C. McGee of East Boston, and it was accepted by Capt. Fairweather in a neat speech. The trophy is a massive silver loving cup resting on an ornate pedestal. Then followed the presentation of the individual gold medals to the players, by Pres. Barker, each of the men responding briefly. The cheers of the large audience concluded the ceremony.

The entertainment provided introduced David L. Smith, who sang some of Harry Lauder's songs, W. Collins, A. Barkley, William Tiche, Daniel Lynch, James Smith, all with vocal selections, that were enthusiastically received.

The committee in charge was D. Lynch, James Smith, James Fairweather, E. L. Binn, The Boston Rovers will play the Metrolans, champions of the Lowell, Lawrence and district league, at Lawrence on April 19, for the championship.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Robert skating tonight from 7:30 until 9:30.

The vespers service in Kilton hall Sunday afternoon at 4 is to be held by Rev. Benjamin A. Willmott, of the First Congregational church, and Howard H. Hare of the Boston University Christian association of Bridgeport, Conn., is spending a day or two at the Lowell association to speak on the industrial work before the students who are in training.

According to the testimony brought out during the case, one Daniel Cronin purchased a Singer sewing machine from William M. Waterman, local agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company. Later the machine, in some mysterious manner, disappeared from Cronin's possession and was placed in a house in Adams street. Lawyer Joseph P. Leughran, representing Cronin, gave Constable McGauvran a demand for the machine, and the latter seized the machine and placed it in William Riggs' place of business in Prescott street for safe keeping. Subsequent to the seizure of the machine in Prescott street, Lorenzo A. Ayer and his wife called at the store and purchased the machine from Cronin for which they paid $9 to Cronin. One of the witnesses for the complainant testified that after Cronin received the money he turned some of it over to McGauvran, and said: "That will make us square."

Mr. McGauvran, in his own behalf, testified that his connection with the case was simply in his official capacity as constable and he had no knowledge of any previous irregularities as to its rightful ownership. The case was submitted without argument and the defendant found not guilty.

GOV. LILLEY

IS SEEKING REST AT A SANITARIUM

STUMMIT, N. J., March 20.—Dr. H. H. Chisholm, head of the American Hygienic institute, located in Pine Grove avenue, this city, admitted yesterday that Gov. George L. Lilley of Connecticut had been an inmate of the institution during the past few days.

Earlier yesterday it was positively denied at the institution that the governor was there. The statement, according to information gathered at the institution, is that he was yesterday afternoon for Lakeview.

Gov. Lilley is suffering from a nervous breakdown, and with his secretary, Charles A. Goodwin, sought to secure rest at the institution. The governor is located in a house about two miles from the center of the city and is completely cut off from the outside world. It was said there, last night, that Gov. Lilley was cheerful and much improved in health as a result of his stay. The governor, a handsome, well built man, was accompanied by a doctor and his secretary had taken possession of the suite of rooms.

MRS. WM. H. TAFT

Looking for a Summer Home Near Boston

BOSTON, March 20.—The trip of Mrs. W. H. Taft, Miss Mabel Boardman and Assistant Secretary to the President, to the vicinity of Boston to search for a suitable summer home for the presidential household, recalls the fact that countless places in New England have been mentioned as "summer capital" possibilities. Three ocean shore resorts, however, have been mentioned more prominently than others, namely, Cohasset, on the shore of Massachusetts bay; Gloucester, on the north shore; and Portsmouth, N. H. Reports emanating from the three places mentioned have declared that President Taft had rented a summer home at each locality.

Cohasset, about 20 miles from Boston, contains many beautiful summer estates, principally of wealthy Bostonians. At Gloucester and in the immediate vicinity of that famous fishing port there are hundreds of magnificent summer estates occupied by wealthy and prominent persons from all sections of the country. Many of the embassies and legations are removed to the Massachusetts north shore during the summer months. John Hays Hammond, a close friend of Pres. Taft, is a resident of Gloucester and has a magnificent home there.

At or near Portsmouth are the summer homes of many persons prominent in the middle west, among them former Gov. Francis of Missouri, who has a summer estate at Rye, five miles from Portsmouth.

Cohasset's chief claim to the summer capital rests in its naturally beautiful location. At Gloucester, President Taft would be near the homes of Secretary of the Navy Von L. Meyer at Hamilton, Secretary Lodge at Nahant and the summer mansions and legations at various points along the north shore. The manoeuvres of the warships might easily be witnessed by the president from this locality.

A triumph for the men of the Sacred Heart parish will be conducted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. I. from March 31 to April 4.

Women's Mission

The mission for the women of St. Patrick's parish will open tomorrow and will be conducted by the Passionist fathers. The second week will be for the men.

A Redemptorist Retreat

A retreat for men to be conducted by a Redemptorist father, will open at the Immaculate Conception church on Passion Sunday and will close on Palm Sunday. Rev. Fr. McRory, O. M. I., pastor of the Immaculate Conception, hopes to see all the men of the parish, young and old, in attendance.

Holy Name Meeting

The Holy Name society of St. Peter's church will hold an important meeting next Thursday evening when preparations for the quarterly meeting in April will be discussed. It is probable that the draft of a revised constitution will be presented by Ex-Pres. Coyne, and hence Pres. Daly expects a large attendance.

WOMAN DESPONDENT AT HAVING TO LEAVE WORCESTER

WORCESTER, March 20.—Despondent because of poor health and grieved because she was to leave her Worcester relatives and friends, to make her home in Belknap Falls, Vt., Mrs. Thomas B. Belk of 107 Endicott street, aged 45, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid.

Mrs. Belk had been a sufferer from tuberculosis and it is believed that the strain of packing her household furniture, preparatory to moving to a new home, was too much for her. Mr. Belk is a moldier and, owing to the business depression in Worcester, he had to go elsewhere to work and he got a job in Belknap Falls, where he had also procured a tenement, and the furniture was all packed and ready to be shipped today.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Belk sent her 24-year-old son by a former husband, Albie St. George, to do an errand up town, where he then locked the door and wrote a note which he pinned to the wall over her bed, reading:

"God forgive me for this. Send for my husband. Tell him and my son to pray for me. I am tired of suffering. Forgive me. I cannot live. Get my sister Margaret to help you. Goodbye to all. Bury me anywhere you like."

She then lay down on her bed and drank the contents of a two-ounce bottle of carbolic acid, some of which she spilled over her face, burning the skin. Her body was discovered by her son.

CATHOLIC NEWS

Missions and Retreats at Local Churches

The Holy Name society of the Sacred Heart church held its monthly meeting in the school in Andrews street last evening. Many members were present and considerable business was transacted. Owing to the inability of Pres. Ward to be present the meeting was called to order by Vice President Thomas Green.

The religious office of the society was recited by Rev. Laurence Tighe, O. M. I. after which he delivered a discourse on St. Joseph, whose feast day it was.

Following Fr. Tighe's address the secretary's report was read and accepted and several committee reports were heard.

Chairman McQuillan of the entertainment committee announced that he had secured sufficient talent for the social to be given by the organization, and that the rehearsals are progressing rapidly. He said that the next rehearsal will be held Sunday afternoon at the school hall. The date for the affair is April 13, and it will be held in Associate hall. Tickets will be distributed then to each member.

A triumph for the men of the Sacred Heart parish will be conducted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. I. from March 31 to April 4.

NO SESSIONS

CONGRESS HAS ADJOURNED
UNTIL MONDAY

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Neither house of congress was in session today, both having adjourned over until Monday. In the senate on that day attention will be given to the selection of the various committees while in the house general debate on the tariff bill will be resumed. It is also probable that an agreement will be reached whereby the sessions will commence at an earlier hour and run to 6 o'clock, this arrangement to last until the bill is ready for adoption, when it is understood the usual hours will be observed.

REP. MACON

CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Mar. 20.—The campaign to procure legislation against speculation in cotton, grain and other agricultural products will be carried on in the 61st congress with even more vigor than in the 60th congress, according to the statements of southern members.

Rep. Macon of Arkansas has re-introduced his bill to prohibit this speculation by forbidding telegraph and telephone companies from transmitting information concerning the buying, selling or dealing in these futures.

"I intend to fight for such a law as long as I am in congress," said Mr. Macon today, "provided that a law is not enacted as I hope it will be."

His bill, together with a number of others on the same subject, were considered by the committee on agriculture at the last session, but no report was made. Under the Emergency amendments to the rules it is believed that the house will be called upon to vote on the proposition at the first regular session.

Rep. Garrett of Tennessee has introduced a bill to prohibit the use of the mails for dealing in these futures.

Rep. Burleson of Texas intends to introduce a bill on the subject. "I do not expect to get any action on it at the special session," said Mr. Burleson, "but next winter I hope to see it become a law."

Others who are preparing for re-drafting bills to prohibit the alleged gambling are Reps. Hoffman of Alabama and Henry of Texas.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Kirk Brown and his company presented "Othello" and "The Merchant of Venice" at the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening, respectively. Both productions were of a high order. Large audiences were present, and applauded the different characters frequently.

The company will close its successful and entertaining engagement with two performances today. This afternoon "The Wife" was played and tonight "The Millionaire Detective" will be the attraction.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE, MAYOR BROWN, VIGOROUSLY CALLING ATTORNEY JOHNSON TO ORDER. JOHN W. McEVY SITTING AT MAYOR BROWN'S RIGHT.

GET MORE TIME

"We feel very strongly that your honor could not proceed with a judicial mind in this case. Your honor is the informant, the prosecuting officer, the judge, and may be the executioner, and we wish to go on record as protesting in the present condition of your honor's mind you could not proceed in justice to the respondents."

"I call your honor's attention to the declarations made by you as to the police commission and what you would do and if you have thus pre-judged the case you should not sit in jurisdiction here. It would be the gravest injustice."

Mr. Bent then cited a case once tried before Chief Justice Holmes and in which he, Mr. Bent, was interested. It was a case against the Boston & Maine railroad and Chief Justice Holmes refused to sit on the case because he owned one single share of stock in the Boston & Maine railroad.

"Lawyers on both sides," said Mr. Bent, "wanted him to sit but he refused. He said that though slight his interest was sufficient to disqualify him from sitting on the case."

Mr. Bent thought that the attitude of Chief Justice Holmes might be considered by the mayor in this case.

"Your honor," said Mr. Bent, "persisted in saying that the police board would be helped, and with that as a constant intention you cannot be of fair mind in this matter."

Mayor Brown said it was not only his right, but his duty to sit on the case and to hear the charges. He promised that he would be fair and impartial and he said he would deny any motion to interfere with that right. He said that he would divest himself of his judicial mind, and exercise the judicial mind, and perform that Mr. Bent seemed to think would be next to impossible because of the mayor's expressed attitude in the matter. Mr. Bent said he was familiar with the fact that the mayor had the right to hear the charges, but said that insisting on more rights was not always best. Mr. Bent allowed that if the mayor found that any of the charges were sustained by facts, and so decided, that the courts would not overturn that finding. The mayor denied Mr. Bent's motion in toto but allowed that exception be saved.

Mr. Johnson did not quite agree with Mr. Bent as to the finding of the mayor. He allowed that the superior court would consider if the mayor's findings of fact ought to stand. "I want, however, to say this," said Mr. Johnson, "I see your honor's right hand."

Mr. Johnson, with whom your honor has been in consultation here, your preferred charges against the commission, and that gentleman with whom your honor will still continue to be in consultation, has been a member of the police commission, and who has himself been found guilty of malfeasance, incompetency and neglect of duty, and who has himself upon review been found guilty, not only by the mayor, but by a judge of the superior court, has been found guilty, and—

"Come to order," roared the mayor.

"I want to be heard," said Mr. Johnson.

"I move that your honor do not consult with that partial man. You are not advising with an impartial man and you should not proceed with him in this matter, and I want my motion made a part of the record," said Mr. Johnson, with dignity, calmness and severity.

The mayor ordered the official stenographer to strike Mr. Johnson's remarks relative to Mr. McEvoy, from the record.

"I say you have no right to order these strikes from the records," said Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Burke proceeded on the question of continuance. He cited the number of charges, the length of time that

BARGAINLAND
WILL BE OPENED TO THE PUBLIC
ON MARCH 25

Since Mr. J. L. Chaffoux absorbed the entire ground floor of the Central block he has made many alterations and added new features to his already extensive clothing business. He has added to his gentlemen's furnishing department the store that was at the corner of Central and Middle streets. He has altered the entire interior and made a large and spacious ladies' cloak and suit department where all the very latest ladies' wearing apparel can be found. This department is second to none in the city. The basement has undergone a wonderful transformation. The portion that was occupied by Panton has been added to the former large quarters. This, with a portion of the other clothing department where goods were stored in cases, has been cleared away and today has been fitted up as a great bargainland department where in future all kinds of clothing for ladies and gentlemen as well as a miscellaneous collection of household and domestic articles can be found. The counters have been built and arranged in a manner that will be of easy access to all persons desirous of purchasing goods at the most reasonable bargain prices. This will prove a great boon to people of limited means. In this new department will be kept the lowest priced wearing apparel which will be a great relief to the department on the street floor and will be greatly appreciated by the purchasing public. The entrance to this new department will be easy of access as it is near the corner of Central and Middle streets where there is a large and spacious stairway finished in cherry which is in keeping with the rest of the furnishings. This department will occupy nearly four thousand square feet of floor space. Anybody who appreciates the value of a dollar cannot help but give this serious consideration as it will be stocked with odds and ends of articles too numerous to mention. The only thing about this department that is cheap is the public. This new bargainland of underpriced goods will be opened to the public Friday, March 26th and no doubt will become one of the most popular trading places in the city.

AT OLD STAND
GEORGE L. HUBBARD LEAVES
WYMAN'S EXCHANGE

Everybody knows George L. Hubbard, the real estate man. He started in business years ago at 41 Central street and later moved into Wyman's Exchange. Today we find him back again to his old stand, 41 Central street, over the Ready Shoe store. Mr. Hubbard has seen many changes in real estate since he started in business, and in fact, he has a number of important transactions to his own credit. However, George says he has a number of good bargains left. If you want to buy or sell any kind of real estate, it would be well to see his list.

CHIEF OF WHITE HOUSE CEREMONIES

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Major Spencer Cosby is the new major domo at the White House, having recently been appointed by President Taft to the position of superintendent of public buildings and grounds, carrying with it the direction of social duties at the official home of the president. The place was once held by Gen. Bingham, now police commissioner in New York. Major Cosby succeeds Major Charles S. Brown, who goes to other duties after five years' service in Washington.

Col. Guy L. Noble will act as Mr. Taft's physician, succeeding Dr. Rixey, who served Presidents Roosevelt and McKinley in a like capacity.

The hearing at which the action was taken in regard to Elder Pick was held last Wednesday before Sister M. Katherine Allen, bishop of the Central ministry of the Shakers. Sister Allen has immediate spiritual oversight of the community at Mount Lebanon, N. Y., Hancock, Mass., and Enfield, Conn., and in addition has some authority over all the Shaker societies of the United States. The investigation conducted by her is said to have sustained charges that the elder had been guilty of immorality in respect to an elderly of the community and the solemn rights of matrimony and dismissal were immediately carried out.

Elder Pick is an Austrian by birth and is said to have joined the Shakers before he was thirty years old. He is now barely fifty years of age.

An address from Canterbury, N. H., where there is a Shaker community, has been called to take the place of the woman implicated in the charges against Elder Pick.

The Shaker community at Mount Lebanon is one of the wealthiest of the sect in the United States, owning not only rich farming lands in that village but also a considerable amount of real estate in New York city, including valuable hotel property. At present the membership in the community is divided greatly in the last decade is about 70. The community is divided into two families of one of which Elder Pick was the leader.

BOARD OF HEALTH

Voted to Close Big Tenement Block

The board of health at its regular meeting held yesterday afternoon resumed its consideration of the infected meat problem. Other matters considered included a recommendation that a block in Coolidge street be immediately vacated in the interests of the public. The board voted to adopt this recommendation. It was Agent Bates who recommended that the block numbered 22-24-26-28 Coolidge street be vacated. The property is owned by George Hussin. Inspector William H. Connors said that conditions were deplorable in the building and that it was a health hazard. The board voted to close the block and the following notice be posted on the house:

"This house as a dwelling place is condemned and closed, not to be again occupied without the permission of the board of health."

The following letter was acknowledged from Austin Peters, chief of the cattle bureau:

Boston, March 15, 1909.

To the Chairman of the Board of Health:

Sir: I desire to call your attention to the following provisions of the law relating to licensing slaughterhouses and renderers and the inspection of meat:

Section 100 of chapter 75 of the revised laws as amended by chapter 243 of the acts of 1907, provides that the mayor and aldermen, selectmen, or other officers as they shall designate a town having a population of more than 5000, the board of health, if any, may annually issue licenses to carry on the business of slaughtering meat, sheep and swine to applicants therefor.

The license shall continue in force until the first day of May of the year next ensuing, unless sooner forfeited or renewed. Such board or officers shall annually, on or before the first day of June, send to the chief of the cattle bureau a copy of the application made to them under the provisions of the preceding section and their action thereon.

Section 111 of chapter 75 of the revised laws, as amended by chapter 243 of the acts of 1907, provides for licensing rendering establishments where the business of killing and rendering horses is carried on and sending notice thereof to the chief of the cattle bureau.

Chapter 229 of the acts of 1903, as amended by section 6 of chapter 323 of the acts of 1908, is an act relative to the marking of certain carcasses and the inspection of certain domestic animals, that the boards of health desiring stamps for marking animals that are slaughtered for food after they have passed inspection can obtain stamps through this office, and they will be furnished at cost.

Chapter 323 of the acts of 1908 is an act relative to the slaughter of animals and the inspection and sale thereof. You will see in this act that the law provides that where a calf is killed for food and the dressed carcass weighs less than 40 pounds it shall be considered unfit for food.

Section 70 of chapter 68 of the revised laws, as amended by chapter 243 of the acts of 1907, provides that if a board of health seizes or condemns any carcass or meat for the reason that it is infected with a contagious disease, it shall immediately give notice to this office, giving the name of the owner or person in whose possession it was found, the nature of the disease and the disposition made of said meat or carcass.

I also enclose printed rules and regulations for the inspection of meat as provided in section 7 of chapter 59 of the revised laws. Many of these provisions of the law have not been lived up to by boards of health as they should have been, and they must be more strictly complied with in the future.

Yours respectfully,
Austin Peters,
Chief of the Cattle Bureau.

After the reading of the above communication the board entered upon a discussion as to what should be done. The opinion was that the inspection of meat has not been carried on with the thoroughness demanded by existing conditions.

The question of Inspector Farrell's resignation was considered. The inspector is forced out by the operation of civil service rules. It was suggested that reinstatement be made on the civil service commission for names from which to choose a successor to Inspector Farrell.

It was voted to have Inspector Farrell before the board at the next meeting, that his attitude on the question of remaining in office or resigning may be learned.

HOLYOKE WOMAN
SAYS HUSBAND HAS ELOPED WITH TWO WOMEN

HOLYOKE, March 20.—Mrs. Napoleon Chenevert, who lives at 13 Dowers street with her daughter, alleges that her husband, who is a well known barber, eloped Tuesday with two women, Mrs. Ludger Tourangeau and Miss Della Tourangeau, her niece, who lived at 51 Lyman street, Thursday.

Mrs. Chenevert asked the aid of the police in locating the three missing ones. She believes that they went to Canada, but has no positive knowledge of this, she has since last Tuesday, when her husband left the city. Previous to that he had abandoned her, she claims, and she had taken up her residence with her parents, whose name is Beaudin.

Mrs. Chenevert alleges that she knew that her husband had been keeping company with Miss Della Tourangeau for some time, although she did not believe that matters were serious until she was practically forced to leave him and make her home with her parents.

She believes that the three left Holyoke on different trains under a pre-arranged scheme and that they were to meet somewhere. She also alleges that the bank account she and her husband had together was drawn out by him and she was left penniless.

This is the first time in this city that a Holyoke man is alleged to have gone off with two admittances.

DR. BAKER
PASSES AWAY AS VICTIM OF SCIENCE

BOSTON, March 20.—Dr. George Lorimer Baker of 12 Rill street, Dorchester, died yesterday at East Bridge-water from tuberculosis, contracted while experimenting with bacilli of the disease.

Three years ago Dr. Baker was conducting a research under a Boston physician for new discoveries that might lead to stopping the spread of the disease, and it was while in this work that he became infected. For two years and a half he has been seriously ill, part of the time at the sanatorium at East Bridgewater.

Dr. Baker was born in Boston 25 years ago and received his education from the Boston schools, graduating from the English high school. Following his elementary school education he went to Coby college, graduating there. He then took up his studies at Harvard Medical school, where he finished in 1902.

In 1904 Dr. Baker became an instructor in bacteriology at the Harvard Medical school. The next year he was engaged in tuberculosis research work, when he was infected with the disease, which he has been fighting ever since.

DRIVERS PRACTICING ON ORMOND BEACH

ORMWOOD BEACH, March 20.—The seventh annual Florida beach auto races on the famous Ormond-Daytona sand course, which are, as usual, held March 23-25, promise to be one of the most successful meets held in years. Nearly all the famous drivers of Europe and America are to take part in the big carnival. The international free for all race should prove a record breaker at one, five and ten miles, best two in three heats. The St. Thomas Dower $2000 trophy is to be raced for again and given outright to the winner. The distance is one mile, best two in three heats. The present holder of the trophy is Fred Marrott, who made the mile record in 23.1-5 seconds in the race for this cup. A feature of the race for the Minneapolis $2000 trophy at 100 miles is a special prize if the winner covers 120 miles within an hour, and present indications are that this will be accomplished. The two mile a minute speed crown race is also on the program. The qualification is that the winner must equal 120 miles an hour for the two miles. There is a motor cycle Marathon race for 100 miles.

It was some disappointing to the Spicketville fans to see Banan trail in third, led by O'Brien and Collins. The disqualifying of Woodies in the 600 yard run was disappointing, but no one has a word to say against the officials in this case. Their action was justified and proper. If it had not been for this, the event would have easily come to the Lowell team.

Following is the summary of the events:
High jump—Won by Banan, Lawrence; second, Bartlett, Lowell; third, Sullivan, Haverhill.
30 yard dash—Won by Canney; second, Dow; third, Connell, all of Lowell.
100 yard run—Won by O'Brien, Lowell; second, Collins, Lowell; third, Banan, Lawrence.
30 yard hurdles—Won by Riley, Lawrence; second, Connell, Lowell; third, Dow, Lowell.
Pole vault—Won by Lawrence, tie between Riley and Taylor; third, tie between Kline, Lawrence; O'Brien and Carroll, Lowell, and Brickett, Haverhill.
500 yard run—Won by Connell, Lowell; second, Ayer, Lawrence; third, Curtin, Lawrence.
Shot put—Won by Brown, Lowell; second, Curran, Haverhill; third, Spalding, Lowell.
500 yards run—Won by Riley, Lawrence; second, Hutton, Lawrence; third, Dushane, Lawrence.
Freshman relay—Won by Lowell.

FASTED 47 DAYS
WOMAN WAS AFFLICTED WITH STOMACH TROUBLE

DERRY, N. H., March 20.—Forty-seven days without a morsel of food passing into her stomach was the wonderful experience of the last days of Miss Mary Alice Lewis, who died at her home here yesterday, aged 19 years. This record is attested by her physician, Dr. Walter R. Sanders, and her nurses who have cared for her. The once lovely girl closed her short life after suffering untold agony for many weeks.

Nearly three years ago Miss Lewis underwent an operation for appendicitis and passed through it apparently all right. One year ago last fall she had a serious stomach trouble and was operated upon by skilled surgeons, and it was found that the outer opening of the stomach had grown together. An operation to relieve the condition was performed and she recovered finely and enjoyed excellent health during the spring and summer.

Last fall she was seized with the old trouble again. She was too feeble for another operation and suffered till death relieved her.

Misery From Weak Kidneys and Rheumatism Vanishes

Cut this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world if you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatever. The prescription is simple and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karsol, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Sassa-parilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and scalding, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissue of the kidneys. It gives them life and power to stir and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, relieving the worst forms of Rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The Extract Dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound Sassa-parilla cleans and enriches the blood. ## FOLEY IS ALIVE

Thought to Have Been Murdered

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., March 20.—A letter has just been received in Brattleboro from John Foley of Peoria, Ill., who was supposed to have been murdered in Chicago 22 years ago.

It was addressed to Foley's brother, Bartholomew, who died eight years ago, and it asked for news of the Foley family. All the Brattleboro members of the Foley family are dead, so the letter was turned over to John Foley's aunt, Mrs. C. C. Turner.

Foley was Brattleboro's star baseball player more than 25 years ago. After the Boston National league team won the championship in 1888 it played a series of exhibition games, one of which was against the Brattleboro nine, with Foley in the box. He struck out 13 of the professionals and was the fastest countryman they met on their trip.

The next year Foley joined the Quincy, Ill., club of the Western league. He never returned to this town, but he was heard from as a bad player in various cities. Bartholomew Foley received Chicago papers 22 years ago giving an account of the murder of his brother on the streets of that city. The relatives were unsuccessful in their attempts to get further information.

CAREER ENDED

DR. MOORE, EX-BANKER, DIED AT LACONIA.

LACONIA, N. H., March 20.—The career of a once notable figure in New Hampshire finance closed at sunset last night in the passing of Dr. Joseph Clifford Moore, who died at his cottage in Lakeport, where since his downfall from a position of power and influence he had lived the quiet life of a country physician.

In the height of his career Dr. Moore was known as the New Hampshire "Napoleon of finance," and in addition to controlling banks and other corporations was a factor in politics, to be reckoned with. The failure of the national bank of the Commonwealth, Derryfield savings bank and People's fire insurance company, all of Manchester, in 1893 following the flight of Charles F. Morrill, cashier of the national bank and treasurer of the other concerns, to Argentina Republic, where he died seven or eight years ago, ended the business life of Dr. Moore, who was president of all three.
